The following letter-form was brought about as a means of teaching my children the Word of God through the mail. And of course, quite naturally so, that's the reason I begin these letters with "Dear Children" and end them with "Love Dad". So for the rest of you who participate in these weekly messages, please keep their original intended purpose in mind.

29 May, 2011

Dear Children,

Last week's sermonet was a real heat-breaker. How I would have loved to had the opportunity to sit down face to face with David Wilkerson and give him the details of what God showed me in "How Do You Want Your Fire... Now Or Later?" Just maybe it would have changed the outcome of his life and I wouldn't have had to write "David Wilkerson Lost His Song!"

However, what's done is done. We cannot help the dead, but there is still hope for some of the living. And just one of those is the subject of this week's message. His name is Doug Perry, and his ministry is "Fellowship Of The Martyrs" (FOTM). Doug is a very gifted prophet, and he has a lot of good teaching materials on his Web site, but he also has some very serious issues. And, of course, that's exactly where we're headed in this sermonet for today: "Doug Perry Speaks For God, But God's Not Always In It!"

Now I really don't remember the specifics on how I came across Doug Perry and his "Fellowship Of The Martyrs", but I think it was probably through one of his YouTube videos. He's got lots of them! But there is one thing for sure; several years ago the Lord led me to Doug Perry so that we can help him get it right with Jesus.

So you might say this one's been a long time coming. In fact the thing that brought it to the point where the Lord said, "it's time to write about it", was Doug's recent video on David Wilkerson's death (<http://youtu.be/-p2bYwf7Kkg>). And the following is just a sample of what he had to say:

"Hey guys, this is Doug. Fellowship of the martyrs dot com. I just, uh, I just got an email and went and checked on the news and everything and found out that, uh, yesterday, Wednesday the 27th, David Wilkerson died in a car accident. His wife Gwen is in critical condition. A head-on collision with a semi truck. Um, and on the one hand we rejoice because a man of God who spent his life, touched millions, is with Jesus. And I believe he is... we're in the last days folks; running out of time. Get serious or get left behind. And I don't mean by a rapture. I mean by the whole bride. You got to pick a team.

Now the first thing that set me off was Doug's flippant statement that David Wilkerson is now "with Jesus". Has Doug Perry taken the position of Christ as judge over all mankind? I mean, for Doug to say someone is in Heaven when they really aren't is nothing but an affront to his claim of being in constant communication with God. So with that one concern in mind, the Lord had me to send Doug a link to "Dave Wilkerson Lost His Song!" along with the following one-liner: "Suicide: the act of committing self-murder!" And this was his reply:

I don't get a witness to this.
For whatever that's worth.
Doug

That was Doug's reply, which was followed by my reply:

Doug,
It's worth a great deal. But do you want to deal with the fact that you have a "spirit of error" that has caused you to "not get a witness"?
In Christ,
Bruce

And then his reply to my reply was as follows:

One of us is wrong. Big deal. Happens all the time. God will sort it out. I don't want to fight with you.
You build your altar and I'll build my altar and we'll see which catches fire first.
Doug

Now, you tell me; does that really sound like the "man of God" that Doug Perry purports to be? "Big deal?" Where is the "fear of God" that must be a part of every prophet's spiritual make-up in order for them to walk in holiness before the Lord? For certain, I do not see it in Doug Perry's response to me. And we're only just getting started. There's much more to come.

In fact as the Lord would have it, in order to help you see just how far Doug Perry has drifted from the "child-like faith in Jesus" that's required of all "Christians", here's the response from one, concerning David Wilkerson's death, who has "child-like faith":

One of Mr. Wilkerson's sons, the Rev. Gary Wilkerson, provided levity when he described receiving letters and e-mails from around the world. "But none touched me more than this letter from a fourth grader in Arkansas," he said, before reading the youngster's words: "I'm sorry that your dad died. But it's good to know that he was a Christian. So there was a good chance he went up to heaven."

So did you catch the import of what that "child" had to say? He/she did not say that David Wilkerson went to Heaven because he was a well-known Christian who did many wonderful works for the Lord. No! He/she said, "there was a good chance he went up to Heaven." In other words, that child had enough spiritual sense to know that David Wilkerson could have blown it in his walk with the Lord anywhere along the way. The child understood... but what about Doug Perry?

“But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.” (1 Corinthians 9:27 KJV)

The Apostle Paul – what an awesome man of God! But yet in the preceding Scripture we find him openly confessing to his “healthy fear” of missing the mark after having preached to others about the “one and only way” to get to Heaven. In fact, in the following Scripture we find Brother Paul warning Brother Timothy about this same issue:

“This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare; Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck: Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.” (1 Timothy 1:18-20 KJV)

War a good warfare – fight the good fight of faith! But just how in the world does a Believer in Christ Jesus actually do the fighting?

Well, I’m certainly glad you asked! And this is the Scripture that’s gonna help us answer that question:

“Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.” (Revelation 3:10 KJV)

Now the best way for me to explain this thing about “keeping the word of God’s patience” is through the following quote from Brother Tony: “The fear and terror of the Lord is what propels me to do everything, to keep His commandments and to seek His Spirit to guide me daily.”

So did you sense that “healthy fear” in what Brother Tony had to say? You see it’s only through God’s Word for our lives, and our suffering in obedience to it, (His Word and our patience), that we can become “re-generated in Christ” and made ready for Heaven. It’s what’s commonly called becoming “born again” because it only comes about through lots and lots of “birthing pain”. In other words, it hurts real good:

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.” (Romans 12:1-2 KJV)

So did you get the fiery picture? The pain of being burned alive on God’s “sacrificial altar” is what the “birthing pains” of becoming “born again” is really all about. And of course that’s the very good reason we need to have the “fear and terror of the Lord” to continually “propel” us through this excruciatingly painful process of “keeping the word of God’s patience”.

“In your patience possess ye your souls.” (Luke 21:19 KJV)

However, just in case there’s still some confusion about this word “patience”, let’s see what Brother Webster had to say about it:

PATIENCE, n. pa'shens - The suffering of afflictions, pain, toil, calamity, provocation or other evil, with a calm, unruffled temper; endurance without murmuring or fretfulness. Patience may spring from constitutional fortitude, from a kind of heroic pride, or from christian submission to the divine will. (Webster’s 1828 Dictionary)

You see “keeping the word of God’s patience” is all about suffering through the process of obeying the Will of the Father for our lives so that we might receive His “promise”:

“And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; And patience, experience; and experience, hope: And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.” (Romans 5:3-5 KJV)

“For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.” (Hebrews 10:36-37 KJV)

And with that in mind, it’s time for a sample of Doug Perry’s teaching. Because the following excerpt was taken from Doug’s YouTube video entitled “Church? THIS mess s the ‘Church’? No, it’s not!” (<http://youtu.be/4Ro3QrJ4CTM>):

“If Jesus is in me, and Jesus is in you, then you’re my Brother, you’re my Sister, and that’s all there is to it. And we need to get along, because we might be all we have. In prison camp, the Christians don’t argue about who’s a Presbyterian, and who’s a Methodist. More Christians died under the Nazis than Jews. More Christians were killed by the communist in China and Russia in the last one hundred years than in all the history combined. It’s coming to America. Are you ready for persecution, and are these things we’re calling church equipping you for it? Are they, these giant barns where we gather all the sheep in one place – really smart if they’re going to round you up. Are you sure you needed a pictorial directory, and do you know who’s got copies of it? Do you know that giving records you gave the 501-c3? Where they’re filed with the government and who has access to those? Some of this stuff is gonna haunt us, and there’s gonna be a lot of tears and a lot of pain. And if you’re a pastor, apostle, bishop, pope, and you helped build this thing and support this thing, you’re going to find out that this is not what God had in mind. This is not what He wanted; it grieves His Heart, it’s not working, and there’s lots and lots of Blood on your head. And I pray that you will have the humility and the brokenness to actually repent and turn instead of trying at all cost to save face and convince people that it’s OK. There will be pre-tribulation”

rapture people still yelling and screaming about it half way through the tribulation, insisting they weren't wrong. Insisting that it's not their fault that people were unprepared. Don't be one of those. Have a soft heart, be broken before the Lord, repent for the locust that are devouring everything, because it's the churches fault. It's dark out there and we had the Light and we didn't take it. And it's getting darker. But the Light is coming, and it's gonna shine real bright. And any darkness in you is going to be exposed. So it would be better to get rid of it now, while you still got a few more breathes to do it. The Lord told me that the day is coming. You're going to have between this heartbeat and the next heartbeat to decide whether you're going to dedicate every heartbeat after that to Him or not. So you'd better go ahead and decide now."

Now what you have just read is the last four (4) minutes of Doug's twenty-five (25) minute video on "The Church"... and it was a hot one at that! Well, at least the first part anyway... because in those last four (4) minutes of Doug's message we're going to discover the truth of his error.

You see Doug Perry talks about, teaches about, and most certainly preaches about the "One True Church" epitomized by the "seven (7) churches of Asia" as found in the second and third chapters of the book of Revelation: the church at Ephesus, the church at Smyrna, the church at Pergamos, the church at Thyatira, the church at Sardis, the church at Philadelphia, and the church at Laodicea. The seven (7) churches of Asia!

However, the one thing that Doug fails to point out is that there are only one (1) of those seven (7) churches that has successfully met the requirements of the "One True Church" after having "kept the Word of God's patience" by "doing the will of the Father":

"Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown."
(Revelation 3:10-11 KJV)

That was the church at Philadelphia! And, of course, once the "crown" has been won by the Believer who has completed his/her suffering through the "Word of God's patience", there is no more need for that Believer to be tested through tribulations (sufferings)... because their minds have been renewed in Christ and they are ready to receive their "crown" in Heaven!!!

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." (2 Timothy 4:7-8 KJV)

In fact the only other church, out of the remaining six (6), that even came close to reaching their goal of "keeping the Word of God's patience" was the church at Smyrna:

“I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.” (Revelation 2:9-10 KJV)

So you see the church at Smyrna had done pretty good up to that point in time, but yet in order to get their “crown” they must first suffer through “ten days” of tribulation and be faithful unto death. That was the “Word of God’s patience” for them... and it was most certainly going to be “tribulation” but not “The Tribulation” of God’s wrath:

“For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.” (1 Thessalonians 5:9-10 KJV)

You see “God’s wrath” is only for the un-saved, un-regenerated sinner: “the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.” And as we pointed out in our expose’ “Tribulation Horror Show” (<http://www.fmh-child.org/tribulation.html>), the upcoming seven (7) year tribulation period is specifically designed by God for all the un-believers who have not been willing to “keep the word of God’s patience” – whether they be confessing “Christians”, staunch atheist, or anyone in-between. God’s “wrath” will be poured out on all those who miss the “Pre-Tribulation Rapture” and get “left behind”... just as the book of Revelation predicts:

“For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?” (Revelation 6:17 KJV)

But getting back to Doug Perry and his belief that the “One True Church” will suffer through “The Tribulation” of God’s wrath – “Get serious or get left behind. And I don’t mean by a rapture.” – it’s now time to come to an understanding of just what he means by “Brothers” and “Sisters” in Jesus: “If Jesus is in me, and Jesus is in you, then you’re my Brother, you’re my Sister, and that’s all there is to it.”

And with that in mind, please allow me to share with you an email I sent Doug Perry on the 28th of February 2011:

Shalom my Brother!

I was searching for some quick-n-easy research on Andrew Wommack when I came across your Youtube:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7ecOUv6ug3U&feature=related>

So I watched it!

You said some noteworthy things, but then you made the statement (in so many words) that Andrew Wommack's theology wouldn't take him to Hell. But then the Lord directed me to the following Youtube containing video clips of Andrew Wommack quoting the Word-Faith damnable heresies:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9KjV95sNgO4&feature=related>

I think you should either add a disclaimer or do a remake on your video. I mean, after all, the following applies to Wommack:

"Woe unto you...for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men...ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves."

In Christ,
Bruce

So, that was my email to Doug Perry. And it was only a short time later that he responded with the following:

Hi Bruce,

I was trying to be very clear in that video about ONE PARTICULAR theology - that God wants to heal everyone all the time. I don't know what other things might send him to hell. For all I know he goes home every night and kicks his dog and looks at kiddie porn.

I'll make a comment in the description of the video.

Doug

Now what did you think of that... as in coming from the mind of a "man of God"? Sounds like I struck a nerve! I mean, after all, this is what Doug Perry said in his "What's wrong W/Andrew Wommack?" video (http://www.fmh-child.org/video/Andrew\_Wommack.wmv):

"Well, this has been chewing on me for awhile, and I guess it's time, and you gotta understand that because we disagree with someone doesn't mean that we don't love them. Because you see things differently than them, it doesn't mean they're going to Hell, or that you're saying that they're going to Hell... so you judge, and you take it to the Lord. We are commanded to judge righteous judgments. If you say, "who are you to judge?" – well, I'm commanded to test and approve, to see what is of God and what isn't of God. To be a Berean and take it to the Word. And take it to capital "W", the Word which is Jesus. And to say Lord, is this OK, what he's saying? No, there's a problem. Well Lord, how wrong is it? Ten percent! Mostly it's OK. But, there's stuff missing."

Doug Perry, the "man of God", claims to have had a conversation with God concerning the damnable Word-Faith "theology" that Andrew Wommack teaches/preaches... and what Doug Perry claims to have received back from God concerning his question about that damnable Word-Faith "theology" that Andrew Wommack teaches/preaches was "Mostly it's OK. But, there's stuff missing."

There's stuff missing??? Doug Perry did not hear that from God! In fact the following is just a sample from that video I sent Doug – "Andrew Wommack: 'The MOST DANGEROUS MAN On Christian Television'" – and it proves that Doug did not hear from God (http://www.fmh-child.org/video/Andrew\_Wommack.wmv):

"Satan made the huge mistake of crucifying Jesus, and took Him to Hell. And when Jesus went down into the lower parts of the earth, I mean He came out of Hell, He destroyed Satan, not only here in this physical earth, but He went down into the lowest parts of the earth.

He defeated Satan and He came out with the keys of death and of Hell dangling on His side...

So there's stuff missing??? What's missing, Doug Perry, is not the issue! It's what Andrew Wommack says that tells the story of his very real relationship with the Devil! Because you see at the core of Andrew Wommack's "Word-Faith theology" is the belief that Jesus the Christ did not redeem lost mankind through His sufferings on His cross. Andrew Wommack's "Word-Faith theology" teaches/preaches that Satan took Jesus down into the lowest parts of Hell, after His death on the cross, and tortured Him in every conceivable and perverted sort of way for three days and three nights. Andrew Wommack's "Word-Faith theology" is all about the doctrine called "Jesus Died Spiritually"... and this is how the founding fathers of "Word-Faith" described it:

"We have sung 'Nearer the cross' and we have prayed that we might be 'Nearer the cross' but the cross has no salvation in it. It is a place of failure and defeat." (E.W. Kenyon - Advanced Bible Course)

"Do you think that the punishment of your sins was to die on a cross? If that were the case, the two thieves could have paid your price. No, the punishment was to go into hell itself and to serve time in hell separated from God...Satan and all the demons of hell thought that they held him bound, and they threw a net over Jesus and they dragged Him down to the very pit of hell itself to serve our sentence...He (Jesus) tasted spiritual death for every man. And his spirit and inner man went to hell in my place. Can't you see that? Physical death wouldn't remove your sins. He tasted death for every man. He's talking about spiritual death." (Kenneth Hagin - How Jesus Obtained His Name)

"Satan conquered Jesus on the Cross and took His spirit to the dark regions of hell. He [Jesus] allowed the devil to drag Him into the depths of hell...He allowed Himself to come under Satan's control...every demon in hell came down on Him to annihilate Him...They tortured Him beyond anything anybody had ever conceived. For three days He suffered everything there is to suffer." (Kenneth Copeland - The Price of It All)

Now was that enough to make you want to throw up? But Doug Perry says that God Almighty said, "Mostly it's OK. But, there's stuff missing."

Give me a break, Doug Perry! Andrew Wommack's "Word-Faith theology" is the ultimate perversion of God's Word from the satanic BIG THREE (Kenyon, Hagin, and Copeland). They say the cross of Christ was not sufficient, but yet the Holy Bible says something entirely different:

"For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened [made alive] by the Spirit: By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison; Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.” (1 Peter 3:18-20 KJV)

You see once Jesus had completed the process of atoning for our sin on His cross, He said, “It is finished” before bowing his head and giving up the ghost. Jesus gave up His Life on His cross, but, immediately thereafter, He received Life through the Spirit. His three hours of separation from God had finally ended. Jesus was no longer “sin” because the sin that He had taken on in His Flesh was no more! Jesus utterly destroyed (annihilated) the sin of the world through His suffering on His cross, and then the Spirit of God gave Him the Life to “preach” (not suffer) in Hell.

And, of course, having said all that, it should be abundantly clear by now why God Almighty says the following about the “Word-Faith” teachers/preachers... of which Andrew Wommack is one:

“For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.” (Philippians 3:18 KJV)

God calls Andrew Wommack an “enemy of the cross” because his “Word-Faith theology” teaches that a Believer doesn’t have to suffer... not in health, not in finances, nor in prosperity. It’s all tied together in one neat package that denies the power of the cross. It is all the “ONE PARTICULAR theology” that Doug Perry defended as he spoke the words of Satan while claiming them to be from God!

What a mess, Doug Perry!

And having said all that we can now come to a better understanding of what Doug Perry meant by the following:

“If Jesus is in me, and Jesus is in you, then you’re my Brother, you’re my Sister, and that’s all there is to it. And we need to get along, because we might be all we have. In prison camp, the Christians don’t argue about who’s a Presbyterian, and who’s a Methodist...”

The prison camps that Doug Perry talks about are no doubt the one’s that God Almighty has shown him that he will be a part of during “The Tribulation”. Doug is not a part of the “One True Church” and he most definitely will not be a part of God’s “rapture”. Doug has sorely missed it somewhere along the way... and he’s now preaching the errors of his ways to all who will receive it as God’s Truth. I mean, after all, Doug Perry even includes the Word-Faith heretics, such as Andrew Wommack, as his “Brother”.

God’s “One True Church” does not include the backslidden reprobate churches that call themselves “Christian”... and God’s warnings to the churches of Asia prove it:

Church At Ephesus

“Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love. Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.” (Revelation 2:4-5 KJV)

Church At Pergamos

“But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication. So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate. Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.” (Revelation 2:14-16 KJV)

Church At Thyatira

“Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols. And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not. Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.” (Revelation 2:20-22 KJV)

Church At Sardis

“Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God. Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.” (Revelation 3:2-4 KJV)

Church At Laodicea

“I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.” (Revelation 3:15-16 KJV)

So, Doug Perry is right about one thing: there will be plenty of Presbyterians and Methodist locked up in the Antichrist’s prison camps during “The Tribulation”. I mean, after all, God has specifically designed the upcoming seven (7) year tribulation period for all those un-believers who have not been willing to “keep the word of God’s patience”!

In closing, as of the writing of this sermonet, Doug Perry has not made the changes to his “What’s wrong W/Andrew Wommack?” as promised. But, then again, why should he? Don’t be like Doug Perry! Keep the Word of God’s patience and “keep on keeping the faith in Jesus!”

(See “Dead Liver-less Frogs And The Word-Faith Movement!”

Update (8/15/11):

Doug Perry, in his 12th of August 2011 FOTM newsletter, fought back against those (such as us) who might give him godly correction... and he did it through a blasphemous YouTube video (<http://youtu.be/iRBSie4Yqro>). In fact the following was how he introduced that same “heresy hunter” video in his newsletter:

“A couple weeks ago, something was brought to my attention by Brother Bill, the Senior Apostle/Pastor/Rabbi of "The Apostolic, Prophetic Tribe of the Most Holy Yah" and "Heresy Hunters R Us." This is a serious issue that really makes me reconsider some things.

We've got a lot of feedback on this one. Brother Bill is really something. You really ought to watch this video and see if maybe there isn't some wicked vile snake that has crept into your own house unawares.”

In his “heresy hunter” video, Doug Perry compares the act of “speaking out against false doctrines” with that of “arguing over which way is the right way to install the toilet paper roll in the bathroom dispenser”. Both acts are basically the same in his perverted way of thinking... which follows right along with his perverted “confession of faith”:

“If Jesus is in me, and Jesus is in you, then you’re my Brother, you’re my Sister, and that’s all there is to it. And we need to get along, because we might be all we have. In prison camp, the Christians don’t argue about who’s a Presbyterian, and who’s a Methodist...”

However, Doug Perry then goes on to testify in this video to the fact that he renounced his membership in a Southern Baptist Church because his pastor did not agree with him concerning the miracles that took place in China, as documented in the book “The Heavenly Man”, as being real and for today. Doug Perry disagreed with his pastor – his Brother in Christ – and refused to get along. But yet Doug Perry teaches the exact opposite.

Doug Perry is a “bipolar Christian”... and Brother James describes him to a “T”:

“If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.” (James 1:5-8 KJV)

Doug Perry – the double minded man – unstable in all his ways! Believers beware!

“ALL FOR THE LOVE OF JESUS”
